

The Mexican Cultural Institute of New York

Past Events

VIEW THE ANNUAL REPORTS

SUPPORT THE MCINY

8 TO 8: STATE OF CREATIVE EMERGENCY

Me gusta Twitter

Saturday, September 29 from 8am-8pm
Union Square, NY

Ten artists were asked to reinterpret their own work and present it to the general public in a very ingenious way. One artist per hour from 8am to 8pm in and around Union Square. All projects are Free and open to the public.

Participating artists: Lina Puerta, Gisela Insuaste, Antonio Ortuño, Rafael Melendez (Mexico, from 6-7pm), Mariano Cinat, Ketta Iannidou, Manuel Acevedo, Vidal Centeno, Sujin Lee and Hilario Alonso Castillo (Mexico, from 4-5pm).

8 to 8: State of Creative Emergency is an initiative shaped by artist Blanka Amezkua, where creative minds are invited to construct and realize a creative Project and execute it for 12 hours straight and encouraging public participation.

Leave a Reply

Name

Email

Comment

CALENDAR

September 2012

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30
« Jul						Oct »

MEXICO IN NEW YORK

Click here for up to date info on the many restaurants, museums, galleries, and community institutions that portray Mexican culture in the area.

View Map

SUBMIT AN EVENT

Are you organizing a Mexico-related event in New York, New Jersey or Connecticut? Let us know!

Contact Us

SUBSCRIBE TO OUR MAILING LIST

By joining our mailing list we will keep you up to date with the Institute's latest cultural events.

Subscribe

